This became National Aborigines Day, which was changed to July and became a celebration of not only Aboriginal culture but Aboriginal survival, this is what we now know as NAIDOC Week. The 2017 theme - Our Languages Matter - aims to emphasise and celebrate the unique and essential role that Indigenous languages play in cultural identity, linking people to their land and water and in the	transmission of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander history, spirituality and rites, through story and song. Some 250 distinct Indigenous language groups covered the continent at first (significant) European contact in the late eighteenth century. Today only around 120 of those languages are still spoken and many are at risk of being lost as Elders pass on. I would like to formally acknowledge the Department of Prime Minister and Cabinet, our Platinum Sponsors: Central Queensland Indigenous Development (CQID), Bidjerdii Aboriginal & Torres Strait Island Community Health and Life without Barriers. Our other major sponsors: Darumbal Community Youth Services, Rockhampton Children & Family Centre and Darumbal Enterprises for their continued support towards CQ NAIDOC Week Celebrations. Elders, kin, and community, I would officially like to Mayimbagu NAIDOC week and ask that you Say G'day the Indigenous way during NAIDOC Celebrations. Yanmandyanju Yadhira NAIDOC Week Kristina Hatfield 2017 NAIDOC Committee Chairperson
